

2015 Utah Wing CAP Encampment Commander Selection

Tue Sep 2, 2014

Greetings, and I hope you had a safe and fun Labor Day Weekend.

Now that Summer is winding down, we have decided to look into the future and make sure that it is as bright as this year has been!

This is a public notification that out of all of the applicants for Encampment Commander, we have selected Maj Scott Carlisi as the 2015 Utah Wing Encampment Commander.

Please join with me in congratulating and supporting Scott as he builds his encampment staff, both Cadet and Senior Members.

You will be receiving additional emails from Scott, and eventually his staff on openings, schedules, etc.

Congratulations again to Maj Carlisi!

Jon
